Dear Sue:

Thank you for your recent letter.
I appreciate your motives in writing me, and I am grateful for your views on our problems in Latin America.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

MRS. ROBERT T. HATT

Dear Allen:-

Long ago I campaigned for Willie under your direction. As George Vassant's wife I was in Paris for two years during the war. She was cultural attache. Later, after her death, at Sarah Surov's suggestion I translated Surov's Russian "You are Wang." The CIA will have records of that.
I hope you will remember me personally.

So one hears only
that this letter
will carry more weight than just

MRS. ROBERT T. HATT

one more letter -

I was born in Mexico;
grew up there, worked - with George there, I have many Mexican friends.
I still write to people in Peru, I had friends in the first revolution against Bustillo -

For us to act in laterally in Latin America drive wants with inter-tional liberals into the communist camp. We can lose all Latin America
by such tactics.

Do what you can with the president before it is too late -

Sincerely yours

Dear Allen:

Long ago I campaigned for Wilkie under your direction. As George Vaillant's wife I was in Peru for two years during the war (he was cultural attache). Later, after his death, at Frank Truslow's suggestion I translated _____. The CIA will have records of that -- I hope you will remember me personally.

For one reason only. That this letter will carry more weight than just one more letter.

I was born in Mexico, grew up there, worked with George there, have many Mexican friends. I still write to people in Peru, had friends in the first revolution against Batista.

For us to act unilaterally in Cuba will drive many well-interested liberals into the communist camp. We can lose all Latin America by such tactics.

Do what you can with the President before it is too late.

Cordially yours,

Sue Vaillant Hatt (signed)
